TRIAL OF ALPHEUS BROWN FOR ARSON,-Alpheus Brown, whose arrest on the charge of secting fire to his wife's dwelling, on south St. Asaph street, in the rear of Smoot's tan yard, was noticed in the Gazette yesterday, had a hearing at the Mayor's office last night. The witnesses called by the commonwealth were as follows: Mrs. Beavers, Sidney Dodson, John Parker, David Lomax, B. F. Beatris, and Capt. Webster. It appeared from the evidence that the wife of Brown, an excellent lady, lives apart from him with her mother (Mrs. Proctor) at a house on south St. Asaph street. On Wednesday night Brown asked John Parker to get a battle and go tota Mr. Beech's grocery store and buy for him tive cents worth of coal oil and a candle, charging him not to inform Mr. Beach for whom he was making the purchase, and Parker did as requested. On Wednesday night Brown mer Dave Lomax and tell into a commu meative mood with him. "Can you keep a secret?" "I reekon so" said Lomax. Then Brown told him that he was going to burn down Mrs. Proctor's house. He did not wish to harm any of the folks in the house, but he to set aside the award made in the case of meant to burn the building. This was about to o'clock. The house in which Brown's wife lives stands alone beside the tan gard drain on too and Stuart counsel for Land, and Col. J. S. the east side of St. Asach street just south of the Midland track, on Wilken street. About mileight Thursday, soon after the conversation with Dave Lomax above stated, Miss Campbell, who lives nearly opposite Mrs. B.'s house, was one of this city, has been appointed by Gov. sitting up busy with her sewing when she saw a flame in the doorway of that house. To hurry on the Governor's staff. He was formerly a down and send a colored man named Sindey member of the Alexandria Rifles. Dobson across the street to alarm the famil was the work of a few moments, and in less than fifteen minutes the flames were extinguished and the police secking a clue to the incendiary. The fire had been kindled by pourtog coal oil on the step, allowing it to run under improved from top to cellar. In the cellar is a the door and saturate the wood, and then set- large stock of domestics and notions, elegantly ting it on fire. The remains of a candle, an arranged for wholesale purposes, with a regular empty coal oil bottle, and the remains of a price list of Baltimore quotations exposed to the lunch of cheese and soda crackers were found view of every purchaser. On the first floor is on the step or near by. The threats of Brown against the house were no secret, and before three o'clock the police, Capt. Webster, had and line selected and tasteful Dress Goods, in todged him in the station house. The bottle all the beautiful shades and fabrics. Everything found at the door was in part identified as that appears lively at this house, everybody leaving which Parker had gotten filled with coal oil for | well satisfied. A new stairway leads up from Brown, and on searching Brown's pockets fragments of soda crackers were found similar to those picked up on the step of the house which had been set on fire. Brown was committed to jail for trial in the Corporation Court. The Figured and Checked, Cocoas and some beautithe Columbia engine house stable, but was not

There is something in the constitution almost specifically providing superior article, drawn from a fountain always that no woman's attainder for her husband's fault shall work forfeiture beyond her own life. As life tenant she was bound to pay all lawful taxes, and her failure so to do cannot take away the right of another owner whose title was to begin at her death, and who had no previous duty to perform in paying taxes. If he had he still is not liable, because there was no assessment and no proceeding against him. The only serious question is whether, when he recovers, the government will agree with him to pay for the land, or will condemn it for a national cemetery, or will remove its dead to some more hallowed place, where visitors will perforce re call the memories of this stain put upon there men who died in fighting men and not in litigating with women.

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT SHOPPING -In taking a glance at the dry goods establishment of Isaac Eichberg, the successor to the Slaymaker Co., we cannot help expressing our opinion that suddenly the store has been greatly the exclusive retail department, which is being replonished constantly. The stock embraces the store to the carpet room, which is fitted up exclusively for that branch, and where will be found Brussells, Tapestry, Ingrain, Three Ply and Rag Carpeting, Oil Cloth in all widths, for floors, halls and stairs; also Mattings, in White, accused was once driver of the Columbia engine, and was at one time on trial for setting fire to the Columbia engine, the Columbia engine to the Columbia engine engine to the Columbia engine e the finest and largest stocks of Dry Goeds before us to be found anywhere; and last, but not least, to Mr. Henry Schwarz, the able manager of that ostablishment, in selecting not only such nice stylish goods, but for marking them cheaper than we ever before seen them anywhere. SPECIAL NOTICES.

WARM WEATHER AND ITS EFFECTS .-Many people, especially ladies, complain at this season of the year of a general weakness or debility-the use of Speer's Port Grape Wine pre vents this-the Wine is said to have a most wonderful effect in giving strength, vigor, and tone to the whole system—it is extensively used by ladies nursing, or about to nurse infants. This Wine is not a manufactured article—no liquor is added to it. It is no patent medicine, or cordial humbug-but is a superior Wine o the Oporto Grapes. It is a pure old, unaduiterated Wine, nothing more or less. Mr. Speer has been supplying hospitals with his Wine for twelve years past. It is said to be unsurpassed for Summer complaints, and for weakly persons. The price is low for so excellent a Wine, and no family need be without it.
